

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL
MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Chicago is dedicated and committed to providing the safest and most secure living environment for the citizens of Chicago and its visitors; and

WHEREAS, Northwestern University Center for Public Safety has trained and educated over fifty thousand law enforcement and traffic and highway safety professionals serving the law enforcement and traffic safety administration positions around the world and has been recognized as setting the industry standard for such training; and

WHEREAS, Northwestern University Center for Public Safety faculty have been recognized in foreign publications and nationally as leading experts in the world in the area of traffic safety; and

WHEREAS, over two and one half million Chicago and Cook County citizens have completed the Northwestern University Center for Public Safety Traffic Safety School Driver Education Course; and

WHEREAS, the City of Chicago and Northwestern University Center for Public Safety have cooperated on numerous projects and programs to enhance the safety of Chicago's citizens in general and its police officers in particular; and

WHEREAS, Northwestern University Center for Public Safety continues to contribute to the public safety environment and quality of life of the citizens of Chicago and Cook County through the diverse, effective and relevant public safety educational programs and public service activities; and

WHEREAS, in March 2011, Northwestern University Center for Public Safety celebrated its seventy-fifth anniversary; and

WHEREAS, Northwestern University Center for Public Safety will recognize and celebrate its seventy-fifth birthday on October 23, 2011, at the Harold Washington Library in Chicago, Illinois at a formal dinner attended by law enforcement officials from around the world:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RAHM EMANUEL, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO, do hereby proclaim October 23, 2011, to be NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR PUBLIC SAFETY DAY IN CHICAGO, and encourage all citizens to recognize the many contributions made by this center and individuals in the public safety field.

Dated this 17th day of October, 2011.

Mayor