Accounting is the common language of business — it touches every facet of an organization. Northwestern’s online post-baccalaureate certificates provide working professionals with the precise education they need for career advancement or CPA preparation. Courses in three structured certificates — Fundamentals of Accounting, CPA Preparation and Advanced Accounting — are available online. Online accounting courses can also be combined with on-campus courses to meet the requirements of accounting certificates or certificates in other subjects, including customized certificates.

The Fundamentals of Accounting certificate provides students with a solid foundation in the principles and practices of accounting, including financial reporting and taxation. Individuals who have budget responsibilities or who aspire to such work will profit from a basic knowledge of accounting.

Career changers who need the accounting course work to meet CPA requirements can complete the CPA Preparation certificate. The program consists of 12 courses (equivalent to 30 semester hours) to meet the Illinois’ CPA requirements. Students in other states can customize their certificates to meet any requirements that apply.

The Advanced Accounting program offers in-depth and advanced knowledge of a range of topics, from auditing to income tax to research and communication. Students who have already completed significant course work in accounting may use these courses to complete their course requirements for the Illinois CPA examination or CPA exams in other states. Where necessary, students can customize their choice of courses to meet specific state requirements.
