Important Safety Message from the OLLI Director:

It has been brought to my attention that OLLI members in Wieboldt Hall are overfilling the elevators, primarily at 12pm when morning study groups end. School of Professional Studies staff have observed OLLI members cramming too many people into the middle bank of elevators, making it unsafe for those entering and exiting the elevators, particularly those with walkers. Please use common sense when using the elevators and do not overfill them. Wait for the next elevator, or alternatively use the Kellogg elevator bank, which can be entered on the 4th floor, south side of the building. I want you all to be safe!

CALLING ALL MEMBERS!

OLLI Needs You To Serve

Viewing of GameChangers

Friday, April 6

9:30am-11:30am

Location Evanston: 500 Davis Center, Suite 700.

The Documentary Film Study Group would like to extend an invitation to all members to join them for a viewing of the film GameChangers. The film's producer Joe Dondanville will be joining us. The documentary reunites players from the 1965 and 1966 New Trier and Marshall boys' basketball teams and features rare game 8mm film clips from super-sectional playoff matchups in Evanston in those seasons, played against the backdrop of racial tensions in the city and suburbs. Space is limited. If you are interested in join us, please email Gloria Gleave at gloria.gleave@gmail.com. Open to all current OLLI

ONE BOOK ONE NORTHWESTERN EVENT - OPEN TO ALL

Take a Stand: A Northwestern Intergenerational Storytelling Event
Thursday, April 12
5:00pm-6:30pm

Location: Segal Visitors Center, Northwestern Campus, 1841 Sheridan Rd., Evanston

Northwestern students and OLLI members will come together to share 5-minute, true, spoken-word stories about how they, or someone they know, have taken a stand for something they believe in as individuals. Standing up for what you believe can take many forms - sitting in, marching, taking a knee, reaching out, speaking up. The belief can be big or small. Sharing these stories can inspire others to take a stand, as well as demonstrate the power of storytelling.

This event is free and open to all OLLI members and their guest. Listeners welcome!

Refreshments to follow the event.
