Black History Month Celebration at OLLI

THIRD ANNUAL CELEBRATION AT OLLI

Black History Month Celebration

Friday, February 22

10am-12pm

Location: Wieboldt Hall, 339 E. Chicago Ave., Room 147, Chicago

Join us for our third annual Black History Month Celebration! We will continue our tradition of honoring the achievements and contributions of African-Americans with lecture, song, music, and storytelling. Our Keynote Speaker, Dr. Jabbar Bennett, will discuss the history of diversity at Northwestern, last year's commemoration of the storming of the Bursar's office, and the current university initiatives. In addition to Dr. Bennett we will enjoy storytelling by Emily Hooper-Lansana and musical performances including musician and drummer Babu Atiba Walker. Coffee and refreshments will be served.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Jabbar R. Bennett, Ph.D. serves as associate provost for diversity and inclusion at Northwestern University. In addition, he is an associate professor of medicine at Northwestern's Feinberg School of Medicine. As the University's chief diversity officer, he is responsible for helping to create a diverse, inclusive and welcoming environment for all Northwestern community members. His full bio can be read here.

PERFORMERS:

Storyteller:

Emily Hooper-Lansana is an arts administrator, educator, and performing artist. Currently, she serves as the Associate Director of Community Arts for the Logan Center for the Arts at the University of Chicago. As a performing artist, she is known for her work with performance duo In the Spirit. She has performed as a storyteller for more than twenty years and has been featured at the National Storytelling Festival, and the National Association of Black Storytellers Festival.

Musician:

Babu Atiba Walker is a drummer, poet, and musician. He has worked with numerous organizations both locally and internationally. Currently, he serves as the Associate Artistic Director and founding member of the Muntu Dance Theatre in Chicago. Muntu is the largest African dance company in the U.S. and just celebrated its 45th year. Babu Atiba also recently performed with Orbert Davis' Chicago Jazz Philharmonic on the inaugural "Chicago Immigrant Stories"

This event is free and open to all current OLLI members and their guests as well as the Northwestern community. Registration is required.

Science Café

Northwestern's Science Café is a forum for the discussion of important and interesting scientific issues. Events are informal and open to the public. Cafés start with an engaging talk from the research scientist who introduces the topic. It is not a lecture, so anyone can ask a question and there is never a cover charge. Science Café events are held at Firehouse Grill, 750 Chicago Ave. in Evanston on the third or fourth Wednesday of each month from September through May. View Upcoming Event.

THE END

Please note: The submission deadline for articles in the OLLI newsletter is the Monday prior to the issue in which you would like your information to appear. For events that require registration, the deadline is 6wks prior. Inclusion is at the discretion of the Director. Send submission requests to lee.lawlor@northwestern.edu
