Navigating Ambiguity: Caring for Family Members Living with Dementia

Tuesday, January 14

12-1pm

Location: 500 Davis Center, Suite 700, Evanston
Streaming Location: Wieboldt Hall, 339 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago

Almost 6 million Americans are living with some form of neurocognitive impairment (dementia) that can differ dramatically in the symptoms they express. Friends and loved ones are often unsure about when to seek help and what kinds of support are appropriate for various conditions. Dr. Darby Morhardt will join us to summarize the different dementia disorders, outline paths families can consider to navigate the complex challenges they face, and identify options for treatment and care. Dr. Morhardt will also discuss the latest research advances being led by the Mesulam Center for Cognitive Neurology and Alzheimer's Disease. This event is free and open to all current OLLI members. Registration is required for both campuses.

---

Dr. Darby Morhardt, PhD and Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), is Associate Professor at the Mesulam Center for Cognitive Neurology and Alzheimer's Disease at Northwestern University's Feinberg School of Medicine.

Holocaust-Related Crimes in Slovak People's Courts, 1945-1947

Wednesday, January 22

12-1pm

Location: 500 Davis Center, Suite 700, Evanston

Streaming Location: Wieboldt Hall, 339 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago

Join us as PhD candidate, Vanda Rajcan discusses her research investigating how the Slovak government used the retributive courts, a legal system established in 1945 to address crimes

Vanda Rajcan, is a PhD candidate in Modern European History, specializing in Central and East Europe, Holocaust history, comparative genocide, and the history of minorities. She has held... committed during World War II, to promote and legitimize postwar political, religious, and national programs. Slovak courts (slovenské l'udové súdy) not only redefined the wartime state's collaboration with Nazi Germany and its complicity in the murder of Slovak Jewry, but also revealed deeper political, social, and religious tensions that connected them to the legacy of World War II, the complicated relationship between Czechs and Slovaks, nationalism, the Cold War, and Holocaust memory. She has presented her project extensively in the United States and across Europe. This event is free and open to all current OLLI members. Registration is required for both campuses.

Presented by the Academic Enrichment Committee in Evanston.
