EMERGING SCHOLARS LECTURE SERIES

Unpopular Justice

Holocaust-Related Crimes in Slovak

People's Courts, 1945-1947

Wednesday, January 22

12-1pm

Location: 500 Davis Center, Suite 700, Evanston
Streaming Location: Wieboldt Hall, 339 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago

Join us as PhD candidate, Vanda Rajcan discusses her research investigating how the Slovak government used the retributive courts, a legal system established in 1945 to address crimes committed during World War II, to promote and legitimate postwar political, religious, and national programs. Slovak courts (slovenské ľudové súdy) not only redefined the wartime state's collaboration with Nazi Germany and its complicity in the murder of Slovak Jewry, but also revealed deeper political, social, and religious tensions that connected them to the legacy of World War

Vanda Rajcan, is a PhD candidate in Modern European History, specializing in Central and East Europe, Holocaust history, comparative genocide, and the history of minorities. She has held fellowships from several institutions including Northwestern University, the religious tensions that connected them to the legacy of World War II, the complicated relationship between Czechs and Slovaks, nationalism, the Cold War, and Holocaust memory. She has presented her project extensively in the United States and across Europe. This event is free and open to all current OLLI members. Registration is required for both campuses.

ATTENTION ALL

Spring Registration Opens Monday, January 27

9am

Registration for spring study groups begins as 9am on Monday, January 27. The fastest way to register is online. By using the OLLI Online Registration system, you will be immediately enrolled in a study group and receive a confirmation email shortly after check out. If a study group is full, you will be given the portion to be placed on a wait-list.
If you choose to register using the paper form, please know that all mailed-in, dropped-off, emailed, or faxed will begin to be processed in random order starting at 9am on Monday, January 27, exactly the same time as online registration opens. You are not registered in a class until your registration has been entered in the system. Some study groups fill very quickly. We encourage you to use the Online Registration for the fastest registration.

Need to purchase or renew a membership? You may do so now. We advise you to take advantage of the time prior to registration opening to purchase or renew your membership. Then, when registration opens at 9am on January 27 all you will need to do is select your study groups and quickly check out. Note: Online membership purchase is by credit card only. OLLI accepts Visa, Mastercard, American Express, and Discover online only.

Need help using the OLLI Online Registration System? Plan to stop by one of our Registration Help Sessions that will be held on both campuses. Volunteers will guide you through the registration process.

Note: If you are a current member and do not know your username and password for the OLLI Online Registration System, please email the OLLI office at olli@northwestern.edu for assistance. Do not create a new profile. New members will need to create a profile to purchase a membership and register.
